

CORPORATE INTL NAMES FOULSTON SIEFKIN KANSAS CORPORATE LAW FIRM OF THE YEAR

Wichita, Kansas (March 2) – The law firm of Foulston Siefkin LLP was named Corporate Law Firm of the Year in Kansas by Corporate INTL for the 2016 Corporate INTL Magazine Global Awards.

According to Corporate INTL, the publication's research department conducts extensive reviews, draws insight from business leaders throughout the world, and takes suggestions to produce a shortlist of firms for each category. The Corporate INTL shortlist is then reviewed and judged by an independent awards panel.

Business lawyers in each of Foulston Siefkin's offices employ their broad and diversified practices to add value to the businesses of our clients. Foulston Siefkin's business attorneys bring familiarity and experience to the diverse and complex legal areas of commercial and business transactions, including corporate governance, finance, securities matters, franchising, antitrust, creditors rights and bankruptcy, real estate, intellectual property and e-business, licensing, general commercial matters, aircraft financing, oil and gas, mergers and acquisitions, securitization, entity formation, regulatory matters, and a myriad of other corporate transaction areas.

For more information, visit <http://www.corp-intl.com/>.

Foulston Siefkin LLP is the largest law firm in Kansas with more than 90 attorneys, and offices in Wichita, Kansas City, and Topeka.