

KANSAS LEGISLATIVE INSIGHTS NEWSLETTER | APRIL 14, 2025

By: C. Edward Watson II, Susan Peterson PhD, and Eric L. Sexton PhD

The Kansas Legislature adjourned Sine Die on Friday, April 11, marking the end of the 2025 legislative session. While lawmakers have wrapped up their work for the year, we are just getting started on analyzing what it all means for our clients. In the weeks ahead, we will provide a full session recap, including key policy decisions, budget outcomes, and what to watch moving forward. Stay tuned.

Kansas Legislative Insights is a publication developed by the government affairs & public policy law practice group of Foulston Siefkin LLP. It is designed to inform business executives, human resources and government relations professionals, and general counsel about current developments occurring in current Kansas legislation. Published regularly during the Kansas legislative session and periodically when the legislature is not in session, it focuses on issues involving healthcare, insurance, public finance, taxation, financial institutions, business & economic development, energy, real estate & construction, environmental, agribusiness, and employment. Bill summaries are by necessity brief, however, for additional information on any issue before the Kansas Legislature, contact Foulston Siefkin's government affairs & public policy law practice group leader, C. Edward Watson, II, at 316.291.9589 or cewatson@foulston.com. Learn more about the authors below:
