KANSAS LEGISLATIVE INSIGHTS NEWSLETTER | JANUARY 13, 2023

2023 SESSION OPENS

The 2023 session opened with the Governor's Inaugural Ball on Sunday evening. Monday was devoted to swearing-in ceremonies for Governor Laura Kelly, other statewide officers, the state board of education members, Supreme Court justices, and Court of Appeals judges on the south steps of the Capitol. Gov. Kelly's address urged unity and civility.

The House and Senate convened at 2:00 p.m. House members were sworn in for their two-year terms. The Senate swore in Sen. Ron Ryckman, Sr., who stood for election after he was appointed to serve the remainder of Sen. Bud Estes' term. Sen. Chase Blasi, R-Wichita, who was recently appointed to replace Sen. Gene Suellentrop, was also sworn in.

On Tuesday, Gov. Kelly initially tested positive for COVID-19. Her State of the State address has been postponed until Jan. 24 at 6:30 p.m. Gov. Kelly released her budget recommendations for the upcoming fiscal year as planned on Thursday morning.

House and Senate Committees held organizational meetings reviewing committee procedures, briefings on issues that may be considered, and listening to requests for bill introductions. State agencies also requested introductions. Insurance Commissioner Vicki Schmidt introduced a package of six bills on Tuesday with technical changes addressing group-funded workers compensation pools, prepaid plans, clarifying language concerning agents or brokers failing to pay premiums to company, and adding language to the enforcement statute to include other professions. On Thursday, the House Appropriations Committee and Senate Ways and Means Committee met jointly to receive updates on the Consensus Revenue Estimates, Human Services caseloads, and a review of the Governor's budget recommendations.

STATE OF THE JUDICIARY

On Wednesday, Chief Justice Marla Luckert delivered the State of the Judiciary address to a Joint Session of the Legislature. She highlighted the successes and budget challenges facing the judiciary. She thanked the Legislature for their efforts last session in stabilizing the judicial budget and adding additional judges. She highlighted the Behavioral Health Summit supported by legislative leaders and the Governor. There are now specialty courts, including five Veteran's Treatment Courts. She also noted the shortage of attorneys in rural areas.

PREFILED BILLS

In the House, there were 11 prefiled bills. HB 2001 defines the grounds for impeachment of justices of the Supreme Court. In the Senate, there were 13 prefiled bills. Sen. Mark Steffen's name was on seven of the bills. The most interesting bill proposes to lower income taxes for Kansans in rural equity decline – counties defined as those with a population of 15,000 or fewer.

Sen. Tom Hawk, D-Manhattan, filed several bills, including one raising legislative pay on his last day in office before his resignation was effective. SB 10 would raise legislative pay from $88 a day to $320 effective 2025. It will generate some interesting discussions.

NEXT WEEK

Next week will be another short week, with the Legislature not meeting next Monday in observance of the Martin Luther King, Jr., holiday.
