

SEVEN SUMMER ASSOCIATES JOIN FOULSTON SIEFKIN LLP FOR 2026

May 18, 2026

Wichita, KAN./Overland Park, KAN. – Foulston Siefkin LLP welcomes Jeremy Beckner, Zaid Dajani, Caleb Gregg, David Holt, Lijana Morris-Teague, Austin Rea, and Taylor Wolgast as 2026 summer associates. Summer associates are law school students who have completed their first or second year and join the firm to gain experience through mentorship and hands-on legal work. Jeremy, Caleb, David, and Austin have finished their second year of law school, while Zaid, Lijana, and Taylor just completed their first year.

The 10-week internship provides exposure to different types of law practice, research and writing assignments, and feedback from attorneys, as well as social and networking events to introduce associates to the firm and our communities. Six of Foulston's summer associates will work in the firm's Wichita office, and one (David Holt) will be based in Foulston's Overland Park office. The students join Foulston from Kansas' two law schools: the University of Kansas School of Law and Washburn University School of Law.

As the largest law firm based in Kansas, with offices in Kansas City, Topeka, and Wichita, Foulston Siefkin LLP provides legal services to a broad range of clients — from large national and international corporations to small businesses and individuals. Foulston's lawyers are consistently recognized as among the leading lawyers in the United States. For more than a hundred years, Foulston's lawyers have provided counsel in a wide range of practice areas, including civil and complex litigation, tax, business matters, employment and labor, and healthcare.
