PROFILE

Matt Bish represents clients in connection with estate and tax planning and the administration of trusts and estates. He has experience developing wills, revocable living trusts, irrevocable trusts, generation-skipping trusts, powers of attorney, premarital agreements, advance directives, and limited liability companies. As an element of his representation of clients, he works with individuals and families to develop and implement estate, gift, and generation-skipping transfer tax planning strategies. Matt assists clients with developing strategies to maximize asset protection.
