PROFILE

Nathan Mannebach, an associate in Foulston Siefkin's Wichita office, is a member of the firm's Commercial Litigation Team.

Prior to joining the firm, Nathan served as an intern for Judge Jimmie V. Reyna at the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit. In his position, Nathan witnessed first-hand how courts handle complex intellectual property disputes. Between his invaluable internship experience and biological systems engineering degree, Nathan provides a deep understanding of the intersection between technology and the law in matters involving the enforcement and protection of intellectual property rights.
